

Kenneth A. Schoetz oversees efforts to recruit new business, as well as support existing business, for the ten regions of New York State.

Prior to his current New York State Empire State Development and Department of Economic Development posts, Mr. Schoetz served as Chief Operating Officer of Upstate Empire State Development throughout 2007.

Mr. Schoetz was Assistant Attorney General in charge of the New York State Attorney General's Buffalo Office from 2003 to 2006. From 1988 to 1999 he worked in Erie County Government, first serving as First Assistant Erie County Attorney and then moving on to serve as Erie County Attorney. From 1992 to 1996, Mr. Schoetz served a four-year term for the Hamburg Village government.

Mr. Schoetz received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Economics from Williams College in Massachusetts and obtained his Juris Doctor from the University at Buffalo Law School where he served as editor-in-chief of the Law Review.

Born and raised in Western New York, Mr. Schoetz resides in Hamburg, New York with his wife and daughter.