

The New York Works Task Force invites you to a public forum to learn about and provide input on the capital budget process for New York State that the Task Force is developing.

On May 3, 2012, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo, Senate Majority Leader Dean Skelos, and Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver announced the membership of the Task Force, bringing together leading finance, labor, planning, and transportation professionals to coordinate a statewide infrastructure plan that will more effectively and strategically allocate New York's capital investment funding and create thousands of jobs. In addition to its regular, public meetings, the Task Force is holding public forums throughout New York State at which community stakeholders can learn about and provide input on the capital budget process.

AGENDA

- Introductory remarks by a Task Force member John D. Cameron, Jr., PE, Chairman, Long Island Regional Planning Council
- Presentation by a representative of the Department of the Budget on the current state of capital funding and financing and the existing capital budget process in New York State
- Presentation by Task Force Executive Director Margaret Tobin on the Task Force's proposed criteria for capital investment decisions and the Task Force's plan going forward
- Panel discussion with the public on the criteria and capital planning process
- Closing remarks by Mr. Cameron
