Bright Buffalo Niagara will use the I Love NY suite to provide an opportunity for thought leaders and decision makers in regional entrepreneurship and economic development to meet or re-connect, with the goal of creating connections and building relationships that will continue to strengthen the region's economic landscape. These efforts support Bright Buffalo Niagara's overall goal of helping launch new companies and create new jobs in Western New York. This event will serve as a welcoming reception, as these guests also are invited to participate in a roundtable event the following day (Sept. 30) with the goal of developing detailed strategy around increasing seed funding for high-tech companies in Western New York, and they are also invited to attend the Bright Buffalo Niagara venture forum on October 1. The venture forum will provide the opportunity for more than 35 young high-tech companies from our region to present their ideas and seek funding from investors.
