

Key Regulatory Changes Affecting Small Businesses — July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014

Agency:	Department of Health
Title/Section(s):	Statewide Pricing Methodology for Nursing Homes – 10 NYCRR – Addition of Section 86-2.40
State Register I.D. No:	HLT-45-13-00006-A
Effective Date:	February 19, 2014
Summary:	This regulation establishes a new Medicaid reimbursement methodology for Nursing Homes. This new reimbursement methodology is for the operating component of non-specialty residential health care facilities (nursing homes). The operating component of the price is based upon allowable costs and is the sum of the direct price, indirect price and a facility-specific non-comparable price.

Title/Section(s): Prohibition of Discrimination on the Basis of Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity or Expression – 9 NYCRR – Amendment of Sections 180.5 and 82-1.5 and 18 NYCRR – Amendment of Sections 421.3, 421.4, 421.16 and Addition of Section 441.24

State Register I.D. No: CFS-32-13-00007-A

Effective Date: November 6, 2014

Summary: This regulation is amended and added to read as follows: Each program shall employ policies and procedures designed to ensure that youth are not subject to unlawful discriminatory treatment in any program decision making process or when being considered for any available service. Program staff and volunteers shall not engage in or condone discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, religion, or disability. Each program shall promote and maintain a safe environment, take reasonable steps to prevent discrimination and harassment against youth by other youth, promptly investigate incidents of discrimination and harassment by staff, volunteers, and youth, and take reasonable and appropriate corrective or disciplinary action when such incidents occur. For the purposes of this section, “gender identity or expression” shall mean having or being perceived as having a gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the sex assigned to that person at birth. “Gender identity” refers to a person’s internal sense of self as male, female, no gender, or another gender, and “gender expression” refers to the manner in which a person expresses his or her gender through clothing, appearance, behavior, speech, or other means.
