

ATLANTIC YARDS AKA PACIFIC PARK BROOKLYN
PROJECT ACTITIVIES UPDATE

This is a Supplemental Report to the previously issued two week look – ahead regarding upcoming activities at Pacific Park Brooklyn covering the period of September 29, 2014 through October 12, 2014.

New York City Fire Department (FDNY) will be conducting training drills at the building located at 752 Pacific Street. These drills will take place on two consecutive weekends, Saturday, October 4th and Saturday, October 11th during the hours of 10 AM to 11:30 AM.

A total of 3 trucks will be parked at the site within the parking lot, there will be no sirens/noise and the trucks will access Pacific Street via the Vanderbilt Avenue security gate. Activity will include placement of ladders along the exterior of the building and stretching of fire hoses into the building. For each of the training sessions, the FDNY anticipates a total of 18 people for three separate companies that service the area.
